

Fun Ways

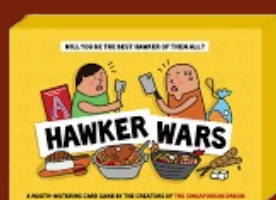

to celebrate
Singapore's Birthday

Play Singapore Card games

Many Singaporeans' childhood memories include playing card games like Old maid and Snap. This National Day, relive those moments with friends and family!

Or try out local-themed games like The Singapore Dream, Hawker Wars, or Singapore Monopoly for a fun and patriotic twist.

Visit national museum or heritage centres

Visiting the National Museum or heritage centres on National Day makes the celebration more meaningful! It is a chance for us to reflect on Singapore's progress the last 60 years, appreciate our shared history, and feel a deeper sense of pride and connection to the nation.

Watch the National Day Parade!

Whether its at the Padang or watching it live from home, get ready to celebrate Singapore's birthday with your family and friends!

Wear bright colored red and white t-shirts, wave your flags high and soak in the patriotic spirit as we honor six decades of unity, progress, and pride.

MADE IN SINGAPORE

As we celebrate Singapore's 60th birthday, let us appreciate how far we have come as a nation!

More than just a celebration, it's about spending time with the people who matter most — your family and friends. Whether visiting the museum, playing games, or watching the parade, make it a day filled with pride, gratitude, as we honour our nation's past and look forward to its future.
